Hi, How are you? I want to know your opinion about something. I'm going to start a new life in Japan next month. And I will study with you in your school. Yesterday I got an e-mail from my host father. He says the school is about five kilometers from his house, I can go to school by bus or borrow a bike from my host family and go to school by bike. How should I go to school? What your opinion?

Hello, John

Thank you for your e-mail.

See you soon.
